Gene Klein President

Gene Klein's commitment to bring a championship football team to San Diego never has been more apparent than in the last year. Klein has been instrumental in trades that have brought such established NFL stars as guard Ed White, running backs Lydell Mitchell and Mike Thomas, and cornerback Willie Buchanon to the Chargers. Klein underscored the intent of these moves by orchestrating a blockbuster trade with Cleveland on the first day of the 1979 NFL draft. The deal enabled San Diego to draft Missouri tight end Kellen Winslow.

It is players of this caliber that have helped make the Chargers one of the strongest young contenders in the NFL. "Our club basically has been built through the draft the last four years," says Klein, "but we also have been able to bring top veterans onto the roster. I think we're ready to make a run with anyone."

It has been a diligent process for the Chargers, beginning in December, 1973, when Klein divested himself of most of his interests in businesses other than football to take a stronger hand in the running of the Chargers' organization. The Los Angeles-based Klein had been principal owner for seven years but was more of an observer of the day-to-day operation of the franchise and had charged others with the responsibility of putting a winning team on the field.

One of Klein's first moves was to appoint Tommy Prothro head coach in January, 1974. Klein named Johnny Sanders general manager and Tank Younger assistant general manager in 1975.

Prothro brought an outstanding record as a head coach and great perception in the evaluation of player personnel. Sanders and Younger were veterans in the field of player personnel and franchise operation. With this nucleus, Klein was able to construct a strong front office and supervise formation of a team that is coming into prime years.

When Prothro resigned after the fourth game of the 1978 season, Klein selected Don Coryell as the Chargers' head coach and Coryell guided the team to an 8-4 record in the last 12 games and to the Chargers' first winning season since 1969.

Klein headed a group that purchased the Chargers for $10 million from Barron Hilton Aug. 25, 1966. The acquisition was small in financial comparison to some of the transactions Klein has made in other areas of American business . . . but Klein had realized a lifelong ambition of owning a professional football team.

Eugene Victor Klein was born in New York City

Jan. 29, 1921. He attended New York University and majored in electrical engineering until Dec. 8, 1941, the day after United States military installations were bombed in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. The 6-foot, 5-inch Klein enlisted in the Air Force and attained the rank of captain, serving as a bomber pilot in World War II. Klein went into the automobile business in Los Angeles's San Fernando Valley after the war and eventually became Western States distributor of the Volvo automobile.

In 1961 Klein assumed leadership of a company that had $80 million in assets. That company, renamed National General Corporation, became one of the largest corporations in the country under Klein's guidance. Among its holdings were Bantam Books, largest paperback publishing company in the world; Great American Insurance Company, and Grosset and Dunlap publishers. National General also was involved in motion picture production, distribution, and theaters. NGC had assets of $1.2 billion when Klein negotiated the sale of the company 12 years later.

Klein remains active in civic and charitable projects. He is on the board of directors, Cedars Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles. He is vice chairman, board of trustees, City of Hope. He is a member of the Los Angeles District Attorney Advisory Council, the Mental Health Association, Variety Club, Big Brothers Boosters, American Cancer Society, and National Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Klein is a life member of the San Diego Hall of Champions.

Gene and his lovely wife Joyce maintain residences in Beverly Hills and Palm Springs and Klein is planning construction of a home in Rancho Santa Fe that will complete his link to San Diego, the home of his team. Gene has two children, Michael Klein and Mrs. Randee Hawkins, both of whom are members of Chargers ownership.

Other members of Chargers ownership are former majority owner Hilton, Jack Foreman, Bill Fox, George Pernicano, John Quirk and Frank Rothman.

Three 1979 number ones: Klein, Kellen Winslow, jersey.

Don Coryell
Head Coach

Don Coryell was named the sixth head coach of the San Diego Chargers Sept. 25, 1978, when Chargers President Gene Klein appointed Coryell to succeed Tommy Prothro, who resigned following San Diego's third defeat in its first four games. Coryell fired the Chargers to an 8-4 record that included 7 wins in their last 8 games for a 9-7 overall record that represented San Diego's most successful season since 1969.

It was a performance typical of teams coached by Coryell, who has constructed one of the most successful coaching careers in football over the last two decades.

Donald David Coryell was born in Seattle Oct. 17, 1924. He played football at Seattle's Lincoln High and joined the U.S. Army as a private in the ski troops upon high school graduation in 1943. Coryell was a first lieutenant in the paratroops when he was discharged three-and-a-half years later and entered the University of Washington. Don played defensive back for the Huskies and was graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in 1950. He took a master's degree one year later and accepted his first coaching assignment as an assistant at Punahou Academy in Honolulu. Coryell was head coach at Honolulu Farrington in 1952, then coached two seasons at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver.

Coryell moved to the junior college ranks in Washington in 1955, taking over a Wenatchee team that had been winless the year before. Wenatchee was undefeated under Coryell, who became the athletic director and head coach at the Army base at Fort Ord, California, the following year. Fort Ord emerged as the only unbeaten service team in the country in 1956.

Coryell became head coach at Whittier College in 1957 and led the Poets to a 23-5-1 record, three Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships and number-one ranking among U.S. small colleges in total offense and passing in 1959. Coryell then served one year as offensive backfield coach at the University of Southern California before taking over a down-trodden San Diego State program.

Don was named the Aztecs' head coach Jan. 14, 1961, several weeks after San Diego had posted an 0-6-2 record against competition hardly befitting a school of such potential. Coryell immediately embarked on a strong recruiting program and whipped the Aztecs to a 7-2-1 comeback in his first season.

Over the next 11 seasons under Coryell, San Diego State became recognized for great offensive teams and the development of outstanding pro prospects. Among other achievements:

—San Diego State had unbeaten seasons of 11-0 in 1966, 9-0-1 in 1968, and 11-0 in 1969. The Aztecs won 25 games in a row from 1965-67, then went 31 games without defeat.

—Coryell was named College Division district coach of the year in 1963, '66, 67, and '68.

—San Diego State was the number-one ranked College Division team in the nation from 1966-68.

After a 10-1 season in 1972, Coryell was hired by the St. Louis Cardinals of the NFL.

His San Diego State record was 104-19-2.

The Cardinals were 4-9-1 in 1973, Coryell's first season, then put together records of 10-4, 11-3, and 10-4, gaining the NFL playoffs in 1974 and 1975. The Cardinals were 7-7 in 1977.

Don and his lovely wife, Aliisa, live in El Cajon and have a son, Mike (July 19, 1957), who attends the University of California at San Diego, and a daughter, Mindy (May 1, 1961), a recent graduate of El Cajon's Valhalla High.

Johnny Sanders General Manager

Johnny Sanders's expertise in pro football administration is widely known in the NFL, whether Sanders is researching a trade, evaluating pro and college player personnel, or guiding the front-office staff of the San Diego Chargers.

Few people in pro football brought more experience to the job when Sanders was named general manager of the Chargers Feb. 16, 1976, after having joined the San Diego team as assistant to the president for player personnel Feb. 6, 1975.

Sanders was appointed by Chargers President Gene Klein after a long association with the Los Angeles Rams, with whom Sanders worked in the areas of personnel and contracts as a scout and front-office executive.

Sanders has been involved with football almost from the time his family moved from San Antonio, Texas, where he was born July 26, 1922, to Van Nuys, California, in Los Angeles's San Fernando Valley. Sanders played football at Van Nuys High and was a running back and three-year letterman (1946-48) at Occidental College in Eagle Rock.

Johnny was a starter on the 1948 Occidental team that had a 9-0 record, defeated Colorado A&M in the Raisin Bowl in Fresno, California, Jan. 1, 1949, and was the school's first unbeaten squad in 33 years. Sanders is a member of Occidental's Athletic Hall of Fame and a member of the Van Nuys Hall of Fame.

Johnny began teaching and coaching in the Los Angeles City Schools system after his graduation from college. He joined the Rams as a parttime scout in 1952 after having been associated with the team during summer training camps since it moved from Cleveland to Los Angeles in 1946.

Sanders was head coach at North Hollywood High from 1951-58, posting a 50-16-1 won-lost record, advancing to the Los Angeles City championship game in 1955, and gaining the playoffs six times. Johnny moved to the new Grant High in 1959 and coached there until accepting an invitation from Rams owner Dan Reeves to join the organization as a fulltime scout in 1962.

Sanders was director of player personnel for the Rams from 1964 until his appointment as assistant general manager March 3, 1969. As general manager of the Chargers, Sanders is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the front office. He also is involved in preparation of the collegiate draft, trades, and in the signing of players.

Johnny and his wife, Peggy, live in San Diego. They have a daughter, Pamela, and a son, Rob, who reside in Los Angeles.

Paul (Tank) Younger
Assistant General Manager

Tank Younger begins his thirty-first season in the National Football League.

Younger's career spans player, scout and administrator, beginning in 1949 as a fullback in the Los Angeles Rams' "Bull Elephant" backfield.

Younger played during what has been described as pro football's Golden Era and he contributed a historic footnote to that period as the first outstanding NFL player from a predominantly black Southern school. Younger was graduated in 1949 from Louisiana's Grambling College, where his size (6-3, 235) and power inspired the nickname Tank.

Younger was named assistant general manager of the Chargers June 17, 1975. He played for the Rams from 1949-57, and served them as a parttime scout from 1958-64 and as a fulltime scout from 1964-75. Younger also played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1958. His career totals included 3,640 yards rushing, a 4.7 average, and 35 touchdowns.

Paul Lawrence Younger was born June 25, 1928, in Grambling, Louisiana. He spent most of his early years in Los Angeles. Tank and his wife Lucille have a son, Howard (Aug. 31, 1956) and two daughters, Harriette (Dec. 21, 1967) and Lucy (3/6/61).

John Trump
Administrative Assistant

Trump joined the Chargers July 17, 1978, as administrative assistant for player personnel. He had worked in the L.A. Rams' scouting department 25 years.

Trump is in charge of the Chargers' player personnel department and coordinates scouting assignments and the NFL draft.

Trump's appointment in San Diego reunited John with Johnny Sanders, the Chargers' general manager who also had started in the Rams' scouting department and who had played in the same backfield with Trump at Occidental College.

Trump was Little all-Coast and Little all-America as a running back and safety on the 1948 Occidental team. Trump also is a member of the Occidental Hall of Fame.

John became a high-school football and baseball coach in the Los Angeles City Schools in 1950. Three years later he began helping the Rams.

He was born John Mountford Trump June 26, 1925, in Glendale, California. Trump attended Burbank High, where he was student body president. John and his wife Jean have two sons, Frank (11/26/52) and Richard (12/25/54).

Aubrey (Red) Phillips
Chief Scout

Red Phillips travels almost 100,000 miles a year researching college players for the San Diego Chargers' draft. Phillips joined the Chargers as a scout in 1967. Phillips is on the road almost continually in the spring and fall, charting prospects, filing information, and updating reports.

Phillips played collegiately as a center and linebacker at Texas Tech and professionally with Saskatchewan of the Canadian Football League. He coached at Texas Tech, Southwestern Louisiana, and Northwestern Louisiana.

Red was born Aubrey Clyde Phillips Nov. 14, 1929, in Abbot, Texas. He and his wife Kathryn reside in Poway. They have three sons, Rusty (May 12, 1953), Mike (Oct. 20, 1955), and Tony (Jan. 11, 1966), and two daughters, Phyllis (May 17, 1964) and Amy (Feb. 2, 1970).

Jim Hanifan
Assistant Head Coach

Hanifan became one of four coaches in the NFL with the title of Assistant Head Coach when he joined Don Coryell's Chargers staff Feb. 1, 1979. Other Assistant Head Coaches are Bill Arnsparger of Miami, Jim Myers of Dallas, and George Perles of Pittsburgh.

Hanifan thus joined Coryell a third time. Jim played end on Coryell's unbeaten Army team at Fort Ord, California in 1956. He aligned with Coryell as an assistant coach at San Diego State in 1972 and went with Coryell to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973, hiring on as an offensive line coach with one year's experience in that area but quickly developing the Cardinals' front.

The Cardinals tied an NFL record in 1975 when their passers were tackled only eight times. The Cardinals led the NFL in fewest quarterback sacks from 1974-76.

Hanifan began his career as head coach at Charter Oak High in Covina, California, in 1962. He was an assistant coach from 1964-66 at Glendale City College in Southern California, then spent four years as an assistant at Utah and two at his alma mater, California, before San Diego State.

He was born James Martin Michael Hanifan Sept. 21, 1933, in Compton, California and attended Covina High. Jim and his wife, Mariana, live in El Cajon with daughter Kathleen (8/24/59), and son James (5/5/71).

Earnel Durden
Offensive Backfield

Durden and defensive coordinator Jackie Simpson share top seniority on the Chargers' staff. Earnel has been the offensive backfield coach for San Diego since 1974.

Durden also coached professionally for the Houston Oilers in 1973 and the Los Angeles Rams in 1971-72. Durden coached on the collegiate level at Long Beach State and UCLA.

Earnel was an all-America wingback on Oregon State's Rose Bowl team in 1957. He was Los Angeles prep player of the year in 1954 at Manual Arts High.

He was born Earnel Durden Jan. 24, 1937, in Los Angeles. Earnel and his wife June live in La Mesa and have three sons, Mike (May 4, 1959), Kevin (Aug. 16, 1962) and Allan (Nov. 26, 1963).

Joe Gibbs
Offensive Coordinator

Joe Gibbs was one of the first players recruited by Don Coryell at San Diego State in 1961 and the first coach Coryell hired to his San Diego Chargers staff in 1979.

Gibbs was named offensive backfield coach Jan. 5. He was elevated to offensive coordinator when Ray Perkins left the Chargers to become head coach of the New York Giants.

Gibbs played tight end, linebacker, and guard for Coryell's teams at San Diego State from 1961-63 after two seasons at Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, California. Cerritos marked Coryell's first recruiting stop after he was named head coach at San Diego State.

Joe coached the offensive line for the Aztecs' 1966 team that had an 11-0 record and won the national College Division championship. He was offensive coordinator at Florida State in 1967-68, and offensive line coach at the University of Southern California, 1969-70, and at Arkansas, 1971-72.

Gibbs rejoined Coryell as offensive backfield coach with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. Joe was offensive backfield coach and offensive coordinator at Tampa Bay in 1978.

He was born Joe Jackson Gibbs Nov. 25, 1940, in Mocksville, North Carolina. Joe moved to Southern California and attended Santa Fe Springs High.

Gibbs and his wife, Pat, live in Carlsbad. They have two sons, J. D. (2/21/69) and Coy (12/9/72).

Wayne Sevier Special Teams

Sevier was Don Coryell's first quarterback at San Diego State in 1961 and helped lead the Aztecs to their first California Collegiate Athletic Association title under Coryell in 1962.

Sevier later handled special assignments for Coryell with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1975-76 and was special teams coach for the Atlanta Falcons in 1977. He was head coach of the high school team and athletic director for the school district in Kellogg, Idaho, from June, 1978, until he was hired again by Coryell Feb. 23, 1979.

Wayne is the only original San Diegan on the Chargers' staff. He was born Wayne Milton Sevier July 3, 1941, in San Diego and grew up in National City, attending Sweetwater High.

Wayne was graduated from San Diego State with distinction in mathematics in 1963 and became head coach, at age 24, at Sweetwater in 1965. Wayne coached eight years at Sweetwater and one year at Cal Western U. in San Diego.

Wayne is married (Ramona) and has two sons, Mike (5/22/59) and Thane (7/9/62), and two daughters, Lorine (5/5/61) and Anna (1/19/75).

Jackie Simpson Defensive Coordinator, Linebackers

Jackie Simpson has guided the Chargers' defense as it has matured into one of the top units in the NFL. Simpson has been defensive coordinator and linebackers coach since 1974. The Chargers' defense was third-ranked in the AFC in 1978 behind Pittsburgh's and Denver's. In 1977 the defense set a club record with 205 points allowed, breaking the mark of 219 set in 1961.

Simpson began his pro coaching career with the Chargers in 1967. He was on the Houston Oilers' staff in 1972 and the St. Louis Cardinals' staff under Don Coryell in 1973.

Jackie was an all-America linebacker at Mississippi in 1957. He played with Montreal of the Canadian League from 1958-61 and with Winnipeg in 1965. He played for Denver and Oakland of the American Football League from 1961-64. Simpson was a scout for the AFL in 1966.

He was born Jack Maylen Simpson Aug. 20, 1936, in Corinth, Mississippi. Jackie and his wife Angela have a daughter, Lisa (Sept. 20, 1959), and two sons, Jack, Jr. (July 1, 1961) and John (Oct. 6, 1962). They live in San Diego.

Jerry Smith Defensive Line

The Chargers' defense had accumulated 93 quarterback sacks the four seasons prior to Jerry Smith's arrival in 1977. In the past two years the defense, principally the defensive line, has reached opposing quarterbacks 98 times. San Diego led the AFC in sacks with 54 in 1978 and broke the club record of 44 set in 1977.

Smith's presence resulted in similar achievement by Baltimore's front four when he was an assistant coach with the Colts from 1973-76. The Colts led the NFL with 59 sacks in 1975 and were second with 57 in 1976. He was architect of Buffalo's championship defensive lines in 1964 and 1965.

Smith is one of the last remaining original American Football League coaches, having served on the staff of head coach Lou Saban with the Boston Patriots in 1960. He also has coached at New Orleans, Denver, Cleveland, and Houston. Smith posted a 2-3 record as Denver's head coach in 1970 after replacing Saban, who resigned.

Smith played linebacker for the University of Wisconsin from 1948-51. He was an eighth-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 1952 and played three seasons for San Francisco before entering the military. Smith concluded his playing career with Green Bay in 1957.

He was born Jerome Anthony Smith Sept. 9, 1930, in Dayton, Ohio, and attended Chaminade High. Jerry and his wife Shirley live in Poway with their daughters, Diane (Nov. 1, 1961), Meghan (Jan. 27, 1965), and Molly (Nov. 17, 1971), and sons, Jeffrey (May 28, 1962) and Brian (May 15, 1963).

Larrye Weaver Defensive Backfield

The Chargers' secondary has developed into one of the most effective groups in football since Larrye Weaver joined the coaching staff in 1977. In 1976 the secondary had finished the season as the twenty-seventh ranked unit in the NFL. In 1977 the Chargers' defensive backs rose to sixth in the NFL and first in the AFC. The Chargers set a club record with 1,721 yards allowed passing that year.

Weaver became a professional coach with the Los Angeles Rams in 1971-72. He was the defensive backfield coach of the New England Patriots from 1973-76. Weaver was a college coach at North Dakota State from 1964-66, at the University

Chronology

1959 First organizational meeting of proposed football league is held in Chicago with representatives of six teams, including Los Angeles entry headed by Barron Hilton, in attendance, Aug. 14. Second organizational meeting is held in Dallas with announcement that league will be known as "American Football League," Aug. 22. Frank Leahy, legendary former Notre Dame University football coach, is named general manager of Los Angeles team, Oct. 14. Gerald Courtney of Hollywood wins expenses-paid trip to Mexico City and Acapulco after submitting "Chargers" in name-the-team contest, results of which are announced at media luncheon in Beverly Hilton Hotel, Oct. 28.

1960 Sid Gillman, former coach of NFL Los Angeles Rams, signs three-year contract to coach Chargers, Jan. 7. The Chargers announce they will hold their summer training camp at Chapman College in Orange, 30 miles Southeast of Los Angeles, March 11. Owner Hilton unveils Chargers uniforms, blue and gold with lightning bolts on sides of helmets and trousers, at cocktail party in Hilton's Santa Monica home; players Jack Kemp and Ron Mix model uniforms, March 20. A total of 207 candidates is reduced to three who are invited back to summer training camp after a four-day tryout camp in Burbank; athletes were judged on speed and agility, April 9-12. Chargers and other AFL teams sign five-year contract with American Broadcasting Company for network televising of selected games, June 9. General manager Frank Leahy resigns because of ill health, July 1. Chargers open training camp at Chapman College, July 8. Sid Gillman assumes dual role of coach and general manager, July 9. Fullback Charlie Flowers gains 61 yards in 5 carries and scores on 18-yard run in first half as Many hopefuls tried out for team, 1960.

Chargers defeat Eagle Rock Athletic Club 38-0 in scrimmage for charity at Chargers' Chapman College training base in Orange, July 30. Paul Lowe returns opening kickoff 105 yards for a touchdown as the Chargers defeat New York Titans 27-7 in first preseason game before 27,778 persons at Los Angeles Coliseum, Aug. 6. Trailing 20-7 with less than 10 minutes to play, the Chargers rally to defeat the Dallas Texans 21-20 in first regular-season game before 17,724 persons at Coliseum, Sept. 10. The Chargers outscore Denver 41-33 to clinch AFL Western Division championship before 9,928 persons in Coliseum, Dec. 10. The Chargers and New York Titans amass 1,351 yards (733 by Los Angeles, 618 by New York) rushing, receiving, and returning as the Chargers score 50-43 victory in final game in Los Angeles in front of 11,457 persons, Dec. 18. Chargers owner Hilton says he will accept an invitation to visit San Diego and listen to civic leaders regarding a possible move of the Chargers from Los Angeles, Dec. 23.

1961 Houston defeats Los Angeles 24-16 in first AFL championship game before 32,183 persons in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium and a national television audience, Jan. 1. Hilton visits San Diego civic leaders; following his departure announcement is made of the forming of the Greater San Diego Sports Committee to bring major league sports to San Diego, Jan. 6. The AFL gives Hilton formal approval to move his franchise to San Diego, Feb. 10. Construction begins on enlarging Balboa Stadium, where the San Diego Chargers will play home games, from 23,000 to 34,000 seats by building upper deck, May 1. The Chargers open training camp at University of San Diego, July 22. Balboa Stadium renovation is not complete and the setting is reminiscent of ancient Roman ruins as Chargers defeat Houston 27-14 on a 93-degree afternoon before a paid crowd of 12,304 persons (total attendance estimated at 15,000) in first preseason game, Aug. 6. Record Balboa Stadium crowd of 33,788 persons watches Chargers defeat Dallas 24-14 for their eleventh victory in row in regular season and fifteenth in succession since 1960; victory clinches AFL West title, although five games remain on schedule; safety Charlie McNeil makes the Chargers' forty-third

Chargers open training camp at University of San Diego, July 16. Keith Lincoln's 103-yard kickoff return, a Chargers record, highlights a 40-14 victory over the New York Titans, Sept. 16. Chargers quarterback Jack Kemp, suffering from an injured hand, is claimed on waivers for $100 by the Buffalo Bills, Sept. 25. The Chargers drop their final game of the season to Dallas 26-17 and finish a 4-victories, 10-defeats season in which 23 players miss at least 2 games with injuries, Dec. 16.

1963 The West defeats the East 21-14 in the second AFL All-Star game before 27,641 persons in Balboa Stadium; end Earl Faison of the Chargers is named outstanding defensive player, Jan. 13. Quarterback Tobin Rote, who led the Detroit Lions to the 1957 NFL championship before going to the Canadian League with Toronto, signs a Chargers contract, Jan. 14. The Chargers announce they will train at Rough Acres Ranch, located in Boulevard, a hamlet of 100 persons high in the mountains of East San Diego County, March 7. Barron Hilton and his father, Conrad, sell one-third of their interest in the Chargers to San Diego businessmen John Mabee, George Pernicano, Kenneth Swanson and James Copley, and M. L. Bengtson of Los Angeles, April 30. Lance Alworth catches 9 passes for 232 yards with touchdown plays of 73 and 72 yards as the Chargers erupt for 35 second-half points on a muddy field to bury the Kansas City Chiefs 38-17 before 30,127 persons, a record pro football crowd in Kansas City Municipal Stadium, Oct. 20. Quarterback Tobin Rote completes 21 of 29 passes for 369 yards and 3 touchdowns and Lance Alworth catches 5 for 180 yards and a touchdown in a 53-7 victory over the New York Jets in Polo Grounds, New York, Nov. 2. Alworth's 13 pass catches (for 217 yards and a touchdown) tie an AFL record as the Chargers whip Boston 7-6 in Fenway Park, Boston, Nov. 10. An AFL-record, standing-room-only crowd of 38,592 persons in War Memorial Stadium sees the Chargers complete three-game sweep of Eastern teams with a 23-13 victory over Buffalo, Nov. 17. Paul Lowe rushes for 183 yards in 17 carries and scores two touchdowns as eight Chargers score in 58-20 victory over Denver which clinches AFL West championship; the point total sets a club record, Dec. 22.

1964 Keith Lincoln accounts for 349 yards total offense as the Chargers win their first AFL championship, 51-10 over Boston before 30,127 persons in Balboa Stadium, Jan. 5. Lincoln is named outstanding offensive player after gaining 121 yards in 14 carries and catching 1 pass for 10 yards as West defeats East 27-14 before 20,016 persons at AFL All-Star game in Balboa Stadium, Jan. 19. The Chargers and seven other AFL teams sign a five-year television contract for a record $36 million with National Broadcasting Company to commence with 1965 season. The Chargers open their summer training camp at the Travelodge Motel in Escondido, July 15. The Chargers and New York Jets tie 17-17 before record AFL crowd of 50,222 persons—46,828 paid—in Shea Stadium, Oct. 3. A Balboa Stadium attendance record of 34,865 is set as Buffalo defeats San Diego 27-24 on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26. The Chargers defeat the Jets 38-3 before 25,753 persons in Balboa Stadium to clinch their fourth AFL West title in five years, Dec. 6. With wide receiver Lance Alworth out of the game with a knee injury and fullback Keith Lincoln sidelined in the first quarter with a fractured rib, the Chargers drop a 20-7 decision, and the AFL championship to Buffalo, Dec. 26.

1965 Fullback Keith Lincoln is on the receiving end of a 73-yard pass play for a touchdown and runs 80 yards for another score as the West defeats the East 38-14 in the AFL All-Star game before 15,446 persons in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium; the game, originally moved from San Diego to New Orleans, was switched to Houston on one day's notice after black players experienced mistreatment in New Orleans, Jan. 16. The San Diego City Council endorses construction of a multipurpose stadium in Mission Valley and drops the idea of a floating stadium in Mission Bay, April 27. The City Council approves expenditure of $750,000 for architectural and engineering drawings of a 50,000-seat stadium to be located at the Southwest corner of Friars Road and Murphy Canyon Road in Mission Valley, May 17. The Chargers open their Escondido training camp, July 14. Quarterback John Hadl throws for 314 yards and 3 touchdowns and flanker Lance Alworth catches 8 passes for 168 yards and 2 touchdowns as the Chargers whip defending AFL champion Buffalo 34-3 before 45,260 persons in War Memorial Stadium, Buffalo, Oct. 10. Construction of the $27-million San Diego Stadium is authorized by a 73 per cent "yes" vote by San Diego citizens, Nov. 2. The Chargers defeat Houston 37-26 before 24,120 persons in Rice Stadium, Houston, to claim their fifth AFL West title in six seasons, Dec. 12. Groundbreaking ceremonies are conducted for San Diego Stadium, Dec. 24. A record San Diego Stadium crowd of 54,505 persons watches the Chargers break open the game with 20 fourth-quarter points to defeat the Minnesota Vikings 30-14, Dec. 5. Harland Sware is named head coach in lockerroom press conference following the Chargers' final-game, 49-33 loss at Houston, Dec. 19.

1972 John Hadl is named National Football League "Man of the Year" in balloting for top citizen-athlete of 1971; a $25,000 scholarship fund in Hadl's name will benefit San Diego youngsters, Jan. 18. Former Chargers great Lance Alworth is inducted into the San Diego Hall of Fame at the Hall of Champions in Balboa Park, March 28. The Chargers report to their UC Irvine training camp, July 12. The Chargers trade defensive tackle George Wright to Cleveland for draft choices, climaxing a 221-day period beginning Jan. 28 in which general manager-coach Harland Svare consummates 21 trades, an NFL record, Sept. 5. The Chargers tie a club record with six pass interceptions in a 37-14 victory over Denver before 49,048 persons in San Diego Stadium, Sept. 24. The Chargers outgain Oakland 440-298 in total yards and Mike Garrett rushes for 145 yards in 28 carries but Oakland wins 21-19 before a record San Diego Stadium crowd of 54,611 persons, Dec. 3.

1973 The Chargers obtain quarterback immortal Johnny Unitas from Baltimore, Jan. 22. In the second stage of the Unitas acquisition, the Chargers trade quarterback John Hadl to Los Angeles for defensive end Coy Bacon and running back Bob Thomas, Jan. 25. The Chargers report to training camp at UC Irvine, July 11. Unitas completes a 30-yard pass to Mike Garrett to become first man in NFL history to pass for 40,000 yards, against Cincinnati before 46,733 persons in San Diego Stadium, Sept. 30. Harland Svare remains as the Chargers' general manager after resigning as head coach, with Ron Waller, assistant coach, being appointed interim head coach, Nov. 5.

1974 Tommy Prothro is appointed the fifth head coach in the Chargers' fifteen-year history; the announcement of Prothro's hiring is made by president Eugene V. Klein in a San Diego Stadium press conference, Jan. 8. The Chargers trade guard Walt Sweeney, 32-year-old former all-pro who shares club record of playing in 154 consecutive games with John Hadl, to Washington for a draft choice, in Tommy Prothro's first significant deal as head coach, Jan. 29. The Chargers open training camp at a new base, United States International University, 9 miles north of San Diego Stadium, July 3. Quarterback Johnny Unitas announces his retirement after 18 seasons as a player, the last in 1973 with the Chargers, July 24. The Chargers drive 98 yards to a fourth-quarter touchdown that provides a surprising, 20-17 victory over Cincinnati, a 1973 playoff team, for Prothro's first triumph, Sept. 22. Rookie Don Woods, claimed on waivers from Green Bay 12 days before, gains 157 yards in 18 carries, including a 56-yard touchdown run, but Miami's defending Super Bowl VIII champion scores three touchdowns in the final 11 minutes for a 28-21 victory before 45,098 persons in San Diego Stadium, Sept. 29. Quarterback Dan Fouts throws for 333 yards, including 270 yards and 4 touchdowns in the second half, as the Chargers defeat Cleveland 36-35 on Ray Wersching's 40-yard field goal with 55 seconds remaining in San Diego Stadium, Nov. 3. Don Woods runs for 105 yards to set an NFL rookie rushing record and an all-time Chargers rushing record of 1,162 yards as San Diego defeats Denver 17-0 in the final game of the season with their first shutout since Nov. 12, 1967, a span of 103 games, Dec. 15.

1975 Don Woods is named NFL offensive rookie of year, Jan. 2. Johnny Sanders of the Los Angeles Rams is appointed assistant to the president for player personnel, Feb. 21. Former Chargers all-pro tackle Ron Mix is inducted into the San Diego Hall of Fame at the Hall of Champions in Balboa Park, March 10. Paul (Tank) Younger, former Rams running great, is named assistant-general manager, June 17. The Chargers open their training camp at USIU, July 8. The Chargers are beaten 13-10 by Los Angeles in their first overtime game; Tom Dempsey's 27-yard field goal wins for the Rams after nine minutes, 27 seconds of the fifth quarter in San Diego Stadium, Oct. 12. The Chargers lose their eleventh straight game when Jim Turner kicks a 25-yard field goal with 4:13 of overtime elapsed to give Denver a 13-10 victory in Mile High Stadium, Denver, Nov. 30. The Chargers end their losing streak by defeating Kansas City 28-20 as rookie running back Rickey Young celebrates his twenty-second birthday with 124 yards in 25 carries (his first 100-yard game) and scores 2 touchdowns, Dec. 7.

1976 Johnny Sanders is named general manager following Jan. 20 termination of services of Harland Svare, Feb. 16. The Chargers open training camp at the University of California at San Diego, their sixth summer base since the team was formed, July 5. The Chargers begin a 15-day preseason odyssey with a 26-17 victory over the New England Patriots in Norman, Oklahoma, Aug. 8. A crowd announced at 38,000 persons in Tokyo's Korakuen Stadium watches the St. Louis Cardinals defeat the Chargers 20-10 in the first NFL game played outside North America, Aug. 15. The Chargers complete their overseas trip with a 17-16 loss to San Francisco in Honolulu, Aug. 21. The Chargers explode for 27 points in the second quarter and demolish St. Louis 43-24 for a 3-0 record, their fastest start since 1968, Sept. 26. The Chargers invite many of their former players to an alumni weekend in San Diego and celebrate the occasion with a 30-27 victory over Houston; the late Frank Buncom, Bob Laraba, Emil Karas, and Jacque MacKinnon are made honorary members of the Chargers' Hall of Fame, Oct. 17. Mercury Morris's 13-yard run with 5:12 of overtime elapsed gives the Chargers a 13-7 victory over San Francisco and their first win in three overtime games, Dec. 15.

1977 The Chargers open training camp at UC San Diego, July 15. The Chargers defeat the Los Angeles Rams 26-25 on Toni Fritsch's 22-yard field goal at the final gun in ex-Rams coach Tommy Prothro's first appearance as a coach in Los Angeles since 1972; ex-Rams quarterback James Harris throws for three touchdowns in his first appearance in Los Angeles since coming to San Diego in a trade after the 1976 season, Sept. 1. Rolf Benirschke's point after touchdown with time elapsed, after James Harris's five-yard touchdown run, pushes the Chargers past Miami 14-13 in the Miami Orange Bowl, Oct. 30. Lance Alworth, a Chargers great from 1962-70, becomes the first elected member of the Chargers' Hall of Fame during halftime of Chargers game with Denver in San Diego Stadium, Nov. 13. With quarterbacks James Harris and Bill Munson sidelined by injuries, rookie quarterback Cliff Olander helps the Chargers surprise Oakland's defending Super Bowl XI champion 12-7 before 50,887 persons in San Diego Stadium, Nov. 20.

1978 Lance Alworth, a Chargers star receiver from 1962-70 and holder of many club records and among all-time pro receivers, becomes the first player from the American Football League named to Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, during halftime of AFC-NFC Pro Bowl in Tampa, Jan. 23. The Chargers open their summer training camp at UC San Diego, July 12. The Chargers trade running back Joe Washington, their number one draft choice in 1976, to Baltimore for running back Lydell Mitchell, one of pro football's all-time leading rushers, and a draft choice, Aug. 25. Tommy Prothro resigns as head coach following a 24-3 loss to Green Bay that leaves San Diego with a 1-3 record and Don

Glen Collins

Coryell's first win was against Denver.

Coryell, former San Diego State and St. Louis Cardinals leader, is named by president Gene Klein as the Chargers' sixth head coach, Sept. 25. The Chargers control the ball for 45 minutes, 17 seconds and defeat Denver 23-0 for Coryell's first victory, Oct. 8. Dan Fouts's 29-yard pass to tight end Greg McCrary with 52 seconds left in the game provides the winning touchdown in a 27-23 victory over the Oakland Raiders; it was the Chargers' first triumph in Oakland since 1968, Oct. 29. Tackle Ron Mix becomes the second elected member of the Chargers' Hall of Fame at halftime of the Chargers-Cincinnati game, Nov. 5. Dan Fouts's 14-yard touchdown pass to John Jefferson is completed with no time left in overtime and gives the Chargers a 29-23 victory over Kansas City, Nov. 12. The Chargers gain 517 yards—their first game with more than 500 yards since 1971—to beat Houston 45-24 and conclude the season with a 7-1 record in the second half and an overall mark of 9-7, their first winning season since 1969, Dec. 17.

1979 Tackle Ron Mix becomes the second Charger and the second American Football League player to be named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, during halftime of the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl in Los Angeles, Jan. 29. Ray Perkins, Chargers offensive coordinator in 1978, is appointed the eleventh head coach of the New York Giants, Feb. 22. The Chargers acquire cornerback Willie Buchanan, an all-pro for the Green Bay Packers, for seventh-round draft choice in 1979 and a first-round draft choice in 1980, April 27. The Chargers make another big trade during the first round of the NFL draft, trading their twentieth and forty-seventh selections to Cleveland for the Browns' thirteenth choice, with which San Diego chooses Missouri tight end Kellen Winslow, May 3. In their third major transaction within three weeks, San Diego receives top running back Mike Thomas of Washington for a draft choice, May 18. The Chargers open their 1979 training camp at the University of California in San Diego, making the La Jolla-located university their summer base for the fourth successive year, July 16.
